Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation (IASR)

The IASR applies to the areas of Information & Communications, Employment and Transportation. To ensure compliance with the legislation, it is required that organizations implement accessibility policies and strategies. The IASR requires;

- Government of Ontario
- Legislative Assembly
- Every designated public sector organization
- Every other person or organization that provides goods, services or facilities to the public or other third parties on Ontario with at least one employee
- All employers with fifty (50) or more employees

Any employer with fifty (50) or more employees is required to develop a multi-year accessibility plan and post it on their website.
